

The Bonalba Annual Championship Rules

The competitions will be played under the laws of the Sport of Bowls (Crystal Mark Third Edition) unless varied below.

DRESS CODE: The LLB Dress Code will be adhered to at all times during the Bonalba Club Annual Competitions. i.e White or club tops.
Singles game markers will also follow the LLB dress code.

DATES: The Club Championships games will be played by the dates entered for each round. It is your responsibility to complete your match before the next round.
The first named team to give the opposition three alternative dates for the match to be played. Failure to agree on a date could result in disqualification from the competition.

No extensions to play by dates will be allowed

Any member entering this competition must be available for the club finals week and for the duration of the Champion of Champions competition. Failing to adhere to this rule may mean disqualification from next year's competition.

COMPLETED MATCHES: Singles will be played up to 21 shots.
Other disciplines to 18 ends unless a tie break is required.
All matches (other than singles) will be deemed to be complete if 12 ends have been finished and the match has to be stopped due to the green becoming unplayable.

SINGLES GAMES: The first named player in every singles match is responsible for arranging a marker, any member of the club may fulfil the duties of a marker if agreed with both players.

DRAWING OF RINKS:

If competition games are played on Roll-up days the committee member on duty will carry out the draw and the Club Competition rinks will be drawn first.

On the day of the game, rinks will be drawn by putting into a bag all the available rink numbers with no exceptions.

Deviating from this rule could mean disqualification from that discipline.

TRIAL ENDS: Two trial ends are allowed at the beginning of each match.

SCORECARDS: Please sign and return all scorecards to the Competition secretary or place them in the score cardholder in the lodge.

A committee of three will deal with any disputes and their decision will be final.

Should you require any further information please contact John Archer

Tel: 617918598